

ARE YOU HEADED IN THE WRONG DIRECTION?

TIME TO TAKE CONTROL

If employee benefits costs keep running over your balance sheet, it's time to turn to InCap®, the market-leading group health captive from Clark & Lavey.

InCap has a proven track record of controlling costs, mitigating risk, and providing participants with a clear view of employee health breakdowns that can get in the way of driving a better bottom line.

If you're not quite ready for the captive route, and want to stay in a self-insured or fully-insured program, we can still help. We have services and innovative benefits strategies that aim to meet your needs and maximize savings.

To find out how we can help you take control, give us a call, at 603-883-3773. Or email us at info@clarklavey.com.
Down the road, you'll be glad you did.
